INDO RAMA SYNTHETICS (INDIA) LIMITED
(CIN: L17124MH1986PLC166615)*POLICY ON PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT*I. OBJECTIVE:

Indo Rama Synthetics (India) Limited (“IRSL”/ “Company”) is committed to creating and maintaining a secure work environment where its Employees, Agents, Vendors and Partners can work and pursue business together in an atmosphere free of harassment, exploitation and intimidation caused by acts of Sexual Harassment within but not limited to the office premises and other locations directly related to the Company’s business.

The objective of this policy is to provide protection against sexual harassment of women in the workplace and for the prevention and redressal of complaints of sexual harassment and matters connected therewith.

All concerned should take cognizance of the fact that IRSL strongly opposes sexual harassment, and that such behaviour against women is prohibited by the law as set down in The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 and Rules framed thereunder being the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (hereinafter referred to as “Act”) as well as the terms of employment. Commission of any act of sexual harassment as defined in the Act and this Policy shall result in strict disciplinary action.

At IRSL, we have zero tolerance for sexual harassment. We value each and every employee working with us and wish to protect their dignity and self-respect. In doing so, we are determined to promote a working environment in which persons of both genders complement each other as equals in an environment that encourages maximum productivity and keeps personal dignity.

We at IRSL are committed to giving every employee a just and fair hearing on issues encountered by them at the workplace with special attention to sexual harassment. IRSL will take very serious disciplinary action against any victimization of the employee who is complaining or the alleged harasser that may result from a complaint.

II. SCOPE:

IRSL's Policy with regard to the Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal of Sexual Harassment covers every "employee" across the Company. IRSL encourages every employee who believes they are sexually harassed to use the redressal mechanism as provided in this policy.

The Policy is with respect to Prevention, Prohibition & Redressal of Sexual Harassment which may arise in places not limited to geographical location viz. Company's offices/ branches but includes all such places or locations where acts are conducted in context of working relationships or whilst fulfilling professional duties or which may be visited by an employee during the course of employment including transportation provided by the company for undertaking such visit. IRSL's Policy against sexual harassment includes sexual harassment by fellow employees, supervisors, managers as well as agents, contractors, customers, vendors, partners and, visitors including outsource employees. Any place visited by the employee arising out of or during the course of employment including transportation provided by the employer for undertaking such journey.

Sexual harassment is judged by the impact on the complainant and not the intent of the Respondent. Sexual harassment as addressed in this Policy need not necessarily be from a male to a female employee, it can be vice versa as well as between individuals of the same gender.

This Policy comes into force with immediate effect.

III. SEXUAL HARASSMENT - DEFINITION:

- a) "Aggrieved Person" means a person in relation to the workplace whether employed or not, who alleges to have been subject to any act of sexual harassment by the Respondent;

 - a) a relative or friend; or
 - b) a special educator' or
 - c) a qualified psychiatrist or psychologist; or
 - d) the guardian or authority under whose care they are receiving treatment or care; or
 - e) any person who has knowledge of the incident jointly with any of the above.
 - (iii) Where the aggrieved person for any other reason is unable to make a complaint, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with their written consent.
 - (iv) Where the aggrieved person is dead, a complaint may be filed by any person who has knowledge of the incident, with the written consent of their legal heir.
- 4) The Internal Committee on receipt of a such written complaint, may if required ask the aggrieved person to furnish additional information about the alleged harassment.
- 5) The Complainant or person authorized on their behalf as per the above provision, shall make a complaint to the Internal Committee through the following mode:
- a) Copy of complaint along with supporting documents and name and address of the witness shall be sent to the Internal Committee at manishk.ra@indorama-ind.com
 - b) On receipt of such a complaint, the Internal Committee shall provide a copy along with supporting documents of such complaints to the Respondent within 7 working days.
 - c) Respondent shall file a reply within 10 working days of receipt of the complaint along with a list of documents, names and addresses of witnesses.
 - d) The Internal Committee shall investigate in detail the matter of the complaint. The Internal Committee shall have the right to call the person against whom the complaint is made or any other witnesses, when necessary.

- e) The Internal Committee shall have the right to terminate the enquiry or give an ex-parte decision on the complaint, if the Respondent or complainant remains absent for 3 consecutive hearings, without sufficient cause.
 - f) The Internal Committee must complete its investigation within a period of 90 days.
 - g) The parties shall not be allowed to bring any legal practitioner to represent them in their case at any stage of the proceedings before the Internal Committee.
 - h) For conducting the enquiry, the quorum of the Internal Committee shall be of 8 Members including one President and one Secretary.
- 6) The Internal Committee may before initiating an inquiry, and at the aggrieved person's request, attempt to settle the matter through conciliation. However, Internal Committee shall ensure that:
- a. Monetary settlement will not be made as a basis of conciliation.
 - b. When a settlement has been arrived at, the settlement terms shall be signed by both parties and shall be provided with a copy of it.

Where a settlement arrives as mentioned hereinabove, no further enquiry shall be conducted by the Internal Committee.

- 7) The Internal Committee may during such investigation, may exercise the power of a civil court, vested in it, in respect of:
- a. summoning and enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him under oath;
 - b. requiring discovery and production of documents;
 - c. any other prescribed matter.
- 8) During such enquiry, upon written request by the aggrieved person, the committee may at its discretion recommend:
- a. to transfer the aggrieved person or the respondent to any other workplace;
 - b. grant leave to the aggrieved person of up to three months which is in addition to leave to which she is otherwise entitled.

Provided, the aggrieved person has to tender a justified reason for such transfer or leave, such as a threat to work in the workplace.

VI. ACTION:

1. The Committee shall on completion of the enquiry provide a report of its findings within 10 days from the date of completion of the enquiry and such report shall be made available to the concerned parties.
2. If the allegation against the respondent has not been proven, the Committee may recommend that no action needs to be taken in the matter.
3. If the Internal Committee arrives at the conclusion that the allegation against the respondent has been proven, it shall recommend to:
 - a) Take action for sexual harassment as misconduct.
 - b) To tender a written apology to the complainant, issue a warning, withhold promotions/ increments of the Respondent, and terminate the Respondent.
 - c) To deduct from the salary/ wages of the respondent or issue direction for payment; such sum as it may be considered appropriate to be paid to the aggrieved person or their legal heirs, as it may determine.
4. Such action will be taken within 60 days of the receipt of the report.

VII. AWARENESS:

- 1) All the Employees, Agents, Customers, Vendors, Partners and Visitors shall have access to this Policy at any given point in time and clarification related to this Policy shall be addressed by the HR team.
- 2) A brief shall be given to all existing employees regarding the features of this Policy immediately upon the formulation of the Policy and to new employees in IRSL during their initial Induction.
- 3) The Company shall comply with all other details as set out under Section 19 of the Act to ensure that all employees are provided with a safe working environment at the workplace.
- 4) The Company shall display the notice showing the name of the Internal Committee members at every establishment in a conspicuous place.

VIII. FALSE ACCUSATIONS:

- 1) The complaint of sexual harassment made by any employee shall be taken up with utmost seriousness by Company. However, there shall be zero tolerance for any false accusation.
- 2) If the Internal Committee comes to a conclusion that the allegation was made with malicious intent or the aggrieved person or any other person making the complaint on behalf of the aggrieved person produced false or forged or misleading documents to prove his/her case, the Internal Committee may recommend action to be taken against the person who has made the complaint, including termination of service. In such a case, malicious intent has to be established after an inquiry, before any action is recommended. A mere inability to substantiate a complaint or provide adequate proof would not attract action as provided herein. A similar recommendation for taking action would be recommended against any witness whom the Internal Committee concludes that he/she has given false evidence or produced forged or misleading documents.
- 3) It is to be noted that this statement is not intended to discourage employees from coming forward with any complaints. IRSL recognizes and expects that some claims may be difficult to prove or support, or may not be found to raise to the level of seriousness deemed necessary to constitute Sexual Harassment. These types of complaints will not be considered to be false accusations.

IX. MISCELLANEOUS:

- 1) The Company may make any alteration or amendment or rescind any of the clauses of this Policy as and when it finds it necessary to do so as long as it complies with the Act. Any such alterations or amendments or rescinding will be intimated to the employee.
- 2) Nothing contained in these rules shall operate in derogation of any law for the time being in force or to the prejudice of any right of any employee under any other Rules or Law.
- 3) The Internal Committee shall prepare an annual report with the following details and shall submit the same to the Company to include in its Annual report:
 - a) Number of complaints of sexual harassment received during the year;
 - b) Number of complaints disposed of during the year;
 - c) Number of cases pending for more than 90 days;
 - d) Number of workshops or awareness programs against sexual harassment carried out;
 - e) Nature of action taken by the employer.

X. CONCLUSION:

The complaints relating to Sexual Harassment shall be handled and investigations will be conducted under the principles of natural justice, the basis of fundamental fairness, in an impartial and confidential manner so as to protect the identity of all viz., the person bringing the charge, potential witnesses, and the person accused of improper behaviour. Also, all efforts shall be taken to ensure objectivity and thoroughness throughout the process of investigation.

The identity and address of the aggrieved person, respondent and witnesses must not be published or disclosed to the public or media.

The decision of the Company shall be final and binding on all. However, the same is without prejudice to any recourse that Company or the individual concerned may have against the respondent and it shall not limit or restrict the rights of the Complainant and/or Company to pursue, nor shall they be precluded from pursuing, such further and other legal actions as may be available.
